THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

MONDAY, February 25th, 1745. [Numb. 570]

LONDON, Sept. 22.

WE hear, that in Conſideration of the gallant Behaviour of Richard Hornby, Maſter of the Ship Wrightſon and Iſabella, a Collier of Sunderland, in defending the Ship with only Five Men and Three Boys, when attacked on the 13th of June laſt, upon the Coaſt of Holland, by a French Privateer of Ten Carriage and Eight Swivel Guns, with Seventy five Men; againſt which he defended himſelf five Hours, tho' boarded ſeveral Times, and at laſt obliged the Privateer to ſheer off, and immediately afterwards ſhe blew up, by a ſhot fired into her Stern, whereby all her Crew periſhed; the Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty have recommended him to his Majeſty for a Gold Chain and Medal of 100 l. Value, and his Crew to be rewarded with a bounty of 5 l. to each Man, and 40 s to each Boy, to encourage others, under the like Circumſtances, to exert themſelves in the Defence of their Ships.

General Blakeney will ſet out next Week for Scotland, to take upon him the Command of the Army there, in the room of General Cope, who is coming to London.

Amongſt other Rejoicings at Paris, on the King's Recovery one of the Citizens illuminated his Houſe all over, having this Inſcription over his Door, in Gold Letters, Vive le Roi, I have two Millions at his Service. Every body was curious to know who this rich and loyal Citizen was. It came out at laſt, that he was an Honeſt Man Hatter, Mr. Million by Name, who has a couple of Sons in the Foot Guards.

Sept. 24. The true Reaſon that has determined the King of the Sicilies to quit his ſtrong Camp at Villetri, is the Intelligence he has received from Naples, that the Engliſh Squadron will ſhortly attempt to bombard that Place, which might poſſibly be attended with a Revolt, if the Army was not at Hand.

They write from Paris, that in the Orders for ſinging the Te Deum, in the different Parts of the Kingdom, the French King is ſtiled, Louis IV. le Bienaimé i. e. Lewis the Well-beloved

The French are drawing together a great Body of Troops in the Neighbourhood of Liſle in order to attack the Allies in their Retreat.

Sept. 27. Admiral Gallowin is arrived at Berlin, with a Meſſage of Importance from his Miſtreſs, the Czarina, to the King of Pruſſia.

Yeſterday a Veſſel fell down the River, in order to ſail with the firſt fair Wind for Breſt, with ſeveral French Priſoners, to be exchanged for thoſe lately taken in the Northumberland Man of War.

His Chriſtian Majeſty, having ſometime ago ſignified his Pleaſure to the Count de Maurepas, that a moſt exact Account ſhould be drawn up of all the Loſſes ſuſtain'd by the Merchants of France, in America, as well as in the Mediterranean, and the Ocean, the ſame was preſented to him on the 1ſt Inſt. the total amount being 40,000,000 Livres.

Private Letters from Frackfort ſay, that Field Marſhal Count Seckendorff has Orders to paſs the Danube at Donawert, and to continue his March thro' Bavaria to Paſſau, where he is to join the King of Pruſſia, who is alſo in full March thither from Budweis; we may therefore expect ſoon the News of a bloody and deciſive Engagement on that Side.

The Emperor having written a Letter to the French King, deſiring that a Body of Horſes might be ſent to join the Imperial Army; Orders for that Purpoſe were immediately tranſmitted to the Marſhal de Coigni, who caus'd 20 Squadrons of Cavalry and Dragoons to be detach'd for that Purpoſe, the very Day after he received the King's Inſtructions.

Tranſports are hired by the Government for the immediate Embarkation of the Forces ordered for the Protection of the Colonies, &c in America.

October 10. According to the laſt Letters from Cologn, the Elector is about to aſſemble 10,000 Men, in Conſequence of the Treaty lately concluded with the Maritime Powers.

Oct. 12. By his Majeſty's Order, a Letter was wrote by the Duke of Newcaſtle, to the Attorney and Sollicitor General, for them to prepare a Bill to paſs the Great Seal, recommending to the Subjects of this Kingdom the making a Loan of 200,000 l. to the King of Sardinia, for the more effectually carrying on the War in Italy; for the Repayment of which Sum and Intereſt, at the Rate of 6 l. per Cent his Sardinian Majeſty will engage all his Revenues, any future Subſidies that may be granted him by this Crown.

Oct. 11. According to ſome private Letters from Naples, of the freſheſt Date, they are exſtively alarmed at the Plague's breaking out again at Reggio. There died, it ſeems, between the 19th and 22d of Auguſt, five Perſons of that Diſtemper; and on the 31ſt, nine more were conducted to the Hoſpital.

Oct. 18. The Dutch auxiliary Ships receiv'd Orders to victual for the Winter, and to remain in his Majeſty's Service.

Oct. 19. Was compleated the firſt Payment of 25 per Cent on the Loan to the King of Sardinia, and the Intereſt on the whole commenced, tho' the other three equal Payments, were not to be paid in 'till November 19 December, 19 and January

It was publiſh'd, that the King of Poland had ſubſcribed a like Sum at 5 l. per Cent. and that the King of Portugal had ſubſcribed 110,000 l at 6 per Cent.

Oct. 23. The Republick of Genoa has ſuddenly put a ſtop to her armament, and ſeems inclined to obſerve a ſtrict neutrality.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. Dobree, Merchant in Guernſey, which he refer'd to his Letter of the 14th Inſtant.

'This laſt Week there has been many 'Pieces of Wreck found upon our Coaſt; 'among others, two Topmaſts, one 74, 'the other 64 Feet long, mark'd in 'white Lead VICT; and alſo a Topſail 'Yard, 64 Feet long, mark'd alſo in 'white Lead Victy; upon the Head of 'the Nails to the Maſts and Yard is the 'Arrow; ſo that we greatly fear the 'Victory has been loſt upon our Coaſts. 'Theſe Maſts and Yard have never 'been uſed, as no manner of Rigging 'was found upon them.'

There is a kind of malignant Fever broke out at Prague, which has ſo much weakened the Pruſſian Garriſon, that the Governor has thought fit to demand, from the King his Maſter, a Reinforcement of 4000 Men.

Oct. 26. According to ſome Advices from Montpellier, the French Court has ſent down thither above 40 Lettres de Cachet, for taking up the Heads of the Proteſtant Aſſemblies, in that Part of the Kingdom.

The Fleet at Mahone the 24th of Sept under the Command of Admiral Rowley, conſiſted of four Ships of 90 Guns, eight of 80, eleven of 70, ten of 60, ſeven of 50, four of 40, and three of 20, beſides Fireſhips, Bombs, Sloops &c. They were to ſail in a few Days for Gibraltar, with the Turky and Leghorn Ships under their Convoy. We hear that ſix or eight Sail of the largeſt Ships, that have been longeſt in the Streights, will come home with the Merchant Ships.

LONDON. Oct. 29.

Some Advices from the Hague confirm the Raiſing of the Siege of Coni, and the Retreat of the Princes into the Country of Nice, whither the King of Sardinia was purſuing them; and even add, that his Majeſty has re taken Demont.
